✠ Opening Prayer ✠

Hymn: WS #793

"Sing to the Lord of Harvest"

P In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C  Amen.

P O Lord, open Thou my lips.

C: And my mouth shall show forth Your praise.

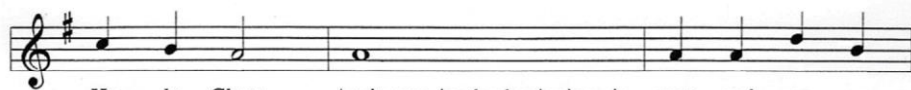

P Make haste, O God, to deliver me.

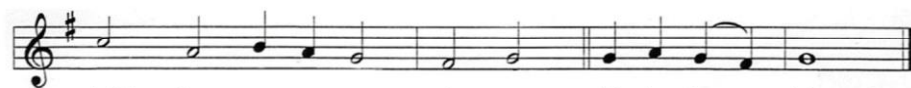

C: Make haste to help me, O Lord.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the

Getting to the Heart of the Problem

Introit

Ps. 65

P Praise is due to You, O God, in Zion, and to You shall vows be performed.

C O You who hear prayer, to You shall all flesh come.

P When iniquities prevail against me, You atone for our transgressions.

C Blessed is the one You choose and bring near, to dwell in Your courts!

P We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, the holiness of Your temple!

C By awesome deeds You answer us with righteousness, O God of our salvation, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas;

P The one who by His strength established the mountains, being girded with might;

C Who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples, so that those who dwell at the ends of the earth are in awe at Your signs.

P You make the going out of the morning and the evening to shout for joy. You visit the earth and water it;

C You greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water; You provide their grain, for so You have prepared it.

P You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges, softening it with showers, and blessing its growth.

C You crown the year with your bounty; Your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.

P The pastures of the wilderness overflow, the hills gird themselves with joy,

C The meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy.

P Praise is due to You, O God, in Zion, and to You shall vows be performed.

Hymn: TLH #598

"We Praise Thee, O God"

Deuteronomy 8:1-10

"The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers. ² And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. ³ And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD.

⁴ Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. ⁵ Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. ⁶ So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. ⁷ For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing out in the valleys and hills, ⁸ a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, ⁹ a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. ¹⁰ And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

Confession of Our Sins

We come before God recognizing we are sinful and need His forgiveness.

- C Lord God we fall before You in sorrow. Though You have given us many blessings, we so often fail to notice them, much less give thanks for them. You bless us with freedom and safety, and we take it for granted. You pour out material blessings upon us, and we devour them, always looking for more, never content with what You have given. We care more about the gifts than we do about You, the Giver. Worst of all Lord, we let the things of this world and our desire for them obscure the most wonderful gift You have given—forgiveness through the death of Your Son. Forgive us for our thoughtless thanklessness, retune our hearts to sing Your grace. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Hymn: TLH #567

"O Lord, Whose Bounteous Hand Again"

Getting to the Heart of Thankfulness

Philippians 4:6-7, 11

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. . . . Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content.

Thankful in Every Situation

Absolution for Our Sins

P Rejoice people of God! For your Father has heard your prayer. He has provided a sacrifice; you will not die. By the blood of Jesus Christ, all your sins have been washed away. As a minister of our Lord, according to His command and by His authority, all sins of thought and word and deed, your thanklessness and your selfishness, I forgive in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Amen.
